TED BALTIMORE MEETINGS.—The meeting at Baltimere of those opposed to the Presiden's policy of reconstruction was held at the From Street Theatre, which will accommodate perhaps 3,000 persons. That of the friends of Arthur Johnson was held at the vast hall of the Maryland Institute, which according to the Associated Press despatch, was densely crowd-(2. If so, there must have been near 8,000 (See is present, as was stated in a special despatch. It was also stated that twice that num ber world not obtain admission to the hall .-These figures may be extravagant, but it is not D by disputed that the mass of the people of Maryland sustain the President's policy .-While Senator Creswell is generally acting with the radicals, there are numerous instances of Union men and Union presses in Maryland that repudiate their destructive course. -Indeed, the public sentiment is rising and Strengthoning against the proscriptive characcar of the suffrage laws of the State, - Nat. How MEN "Bust Up." - Men with unastring wives never fail. It is the husband of Cab women as Mrs. Dash and Lady Brilliant who and themselves face to face with the sheriff and certain misterious documents adorned with red tape and a waifer big enough for target ex-Cones. The desire of a New York feminine is to ontshine her neighbors—not in mental acquiroments, but in gingerbread ornaments and following secutions. If Mrs. Dash gets up a 6-120 supper-woodcock stuffed with gold dust -Lary Brilliant takes the wind out of her sails by gaing up another, in which the prevailing did will be birds of paradise swmming in gramy sadde of melted pearls. It is this rivalry, end not "cabbling in railroad stocks," that buses transions to the fast men of Wall street. 123 Westune of which they so much comr die, is zo more nor less than a brainless wife. It they would come back to happiness, they 1 100 heart their attention, not to the fluctuation of the stock market, but the ruinous ab-A. P. Citts of their own firesides.
